Lieut. James N. Gall has arrived at his home in Barre after long service overseas with the American forces.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Campbell returned last night from Old Orchard, Me., where they have been for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Willey and family and Dr. F. M. Lynde left this morning for Old Orchard, Me., where they will spend the holiday.

Thomas Davidson of New York City arrived this morning and is visiting at the home of his brother, Jack Davidson, of Tremont street.

C. H. Preston of Montreal, who has been visiting friends and relatives in the city for the past week, returned to his home this morning.

Miss Gladys N. Gale will resume her teaching after Sept. 1. Instruction in piano, pipe organ and harmony. Private and class work. Phone 625.—adv.

L. K. Kent of Averill street is taking a few days' vacation from his duties in the Eastman store and, touring through the state, will make a short stop in Burlington with friends and relatives.

Ewen McKenzie of Jericho is visiting relatives in town today. Mr. McKenzie recently received an engraved memorial of his son, George R. McKenzie, a member of Co. C, 103d infantry, who made the supreme sacrifice at the battle of Chateau Thierry, July 20, 1918. The memorial is subscribed to by General J. J. Pershing and is being sent to the family by the parents of Robert R. Webster, another Barre lad who fell.

John Cooper of South Main street was pleasantly surprised last evening when a party of about 30 of his friends gathered to entertain him in honor of his 19th birthday. The evening was spent in playing games and dancing. Alexander Jeffrey played the guitar and John Zaik played the mandolin; the victrola was also used to furnish music for dancing. Miss Ethel Snodgett made very fitting remarks in presenting Mr. Cooper a gold watch. Refreshments were served. The party broke up about midnight after a few hours of much pleasure.

Miss Margaret A. Johnston was the victim of a well-planned surprise in her honor last evening, the party taking the form of a shower in honor of her approaching marriage. Miss Johnston was invited to the home of Miss Margaret A. Dovers and there she was received by 30 of her friends. The evening was given over to the tracing of gifts, attached to the ends of countless strings, the recipient being required to read the verse to be found with the remembrance. An electric toaster and sherbet glasses were among a long list of useful gifts for the average householder. Games that were unusually interesting and music by the entire company produced amusement enough. Delicious refreshments of lemon sherbet and cake were served. A delightful time is reported.
